

Fathers in the Field Child Application (to be completed by mother)

Important eligibility information. Please read thoroughly before completing the application process!

- This program is for boys only, ages 7-17. While we acknowledge the importance for young girls to have strong male role models in their lives, at this time, we are not equipped to offer this program for girls.
- Eligible boys must not have their biological father involved in their life. While we realize that if a biological father is present in a boy's life, he may not be a good role model. Flatirons recognizes the conflicts and confusion that may arise by having two male influences in a boy's life, and aims to establish a safe and effective mentoring environment.

I understand that Fathers in the Field is a faith-based ministry and that my son/s will attend church twice a month with his Mentor Father. I also understand that my child will enter into a mentor relationship that aligns with the seven core values of Flatirons Community Church, which are:

- Biblical Authority | A Better Way To Do Life | To present God's word with grace and truth and we recognize its authority and our need to adjust to it. I am striving to live my life under the authority of the teachings of Jesus Christ as found in the Bible. As a leader, I will do my best to point others back to the Bible as the ultimate authority for truth.
- Relational Intimacy | Grace and Truth | No matter what disconnected me from God, Jesus is the only way to reconnect with him. I have made a personal decision to accept the grace offered to me through faith in Jesus Christ and I am trusting Jesus as my Savior and Lord. As a leader, I will extend the same grace and truth to others that God has given to me.
- Intentional Apprenticeship | We believe that following Jesus involves implementing a strategy to enthrall yourself with God and eliminate any obstacles or responses that stand against God’s good intentions for you. As a leader, I will align my faith journey with this as I continue to grow in my own faith and lead others to do the same.
- Authentic Community | Me too | Pursuing truth together is the best opportunity for truly living out and applying that truth. I will lead out with a “me too” attitude, rather than out of authority or position, and engage in and encourage others to enter into community that seeks Jesus in all aspects of grief and healing.
- Gifted Service | Purpose and personality | We recognize that God distributes spiritual gifts (time, talents, treasure) to equip the church in order to serve as Christ to the world. As a leader, I am willing to adjust my time, my abilities and my resources to align with the giftedness and direction with which God has trusted me.
- Excellent environments | Bump into Jesus | We aren’t in the business of changing people. Rather, we embrace our role as creating a space where people can work out their stuff with Jesus. I understand that it is not my job to change, fix or save anyone. As a leader, it is my responsibility to provide and protect an environment that allows others to hear from God and process what God may be teaching them.
- Relational Evangelism | Come and See | We will intentionally leverage our influence in the world for the purpose of introducing people to the awesome love of Christ. As a leader, the best thing I can do for one of my friends is to simply tell my own story and invite them to take a step closer to Jesus and see, hear and decide for themselves the role Jesus wants to take in their life.
