1. Who are the people in your life today that you consider your closest friends? How long have you known each other? In what ways have they improved your life?
2. If you were to win the Powerball Lottery, what's the first things you would buy and why?

CORE

3. In your current season of life, what do you feel like God has been teaching you? When you think about everything that God has done in the past, how does that affect how you look at your current season you are in and the struggles that you are facing?
4. Read Matthew 6:21-24. Why do you think money is the greatest competition for God's spot in our lives? If you took an honest look at your finances, what would you say your heart values most?
5. Jim said, "We learn in rows. We grow in circles." Have you experienced this? Have you ever learned something in church (rows) and then had that grow or change you through a small group or trusted men (circles)? If not, what is getting in the way?
6. What does it mean to you to seek God's Kingdom first in your life? Would that change the way you live? Why or why not?
7. Read 2 Peter 3:8-9. What does this passage teach us about the character of God and about His timing? Is there anything that you are currently waiting for God to do? If so, what do you think that God wants from you (and for you) in that situation?

CHALLENGE

Take some time this week to write down the things in your life that are worth celebrating (successes, struggles, joys, hard lessons, etc.). Then write down something that you feel God has been saying to you, or trying to teach you through the process. Carry these things with you throughout the week and intentionally take time meditating on how that truth can change your life.
